Approved For Release 2004/07/08 : CIA-RDP80R94720R90@900050027-5 4 THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20505

12 August 1974

Brigadier General James L. Brown, USAF DCS/Intelligence Department of the Air Force Headquarters Strategic Air Command Offutt Air Force Base, Nebraska 68113

Dear General Brown:

The DCI has given me your letter to him of 1 August with its much appreciated invitation to me and three of my colleagues to visit the Strategic Air Command.

I appreciate the invitation very much, am delighted to accept it and am looking forward to the visit. As you know, Mr. Stoertz and are already planning to visit SAC during the first week in September in connection with work on NIE 11-3/8.

If Washington duties permit, I hope to get away before Labor Day for a few days with my family at the beach. I suggest, therefore, that I plan to call you during the first week in September to arrange a mutually convenient time for and me to take up your kind invitation. We can either come separately or come together depending on our respective schedules here and your preferences.

I look forward to meeting you in person and to having an opportunity to see SAC at first hand, particularly in light of the regard I have long felt for the importance of SAC's responsibilities and the professionalism with which they are discharged.

With best regards.

George A. Carver, Jr.
